

Call for Papers

APA Central Division Meeting
April 18-21, 2007
Palmer House Hilton Hotel, Chicago, IL

The Society for Student Philosophers (SSP) invites student submission of papers for possible presentation at the APA Central Division Meeting.

- Papers should be philosophical in the broad sense of the term, showcasing student research and critical thinking at its best.
- Authors must be of student status (e.g., not holding a Ph.D. and still pursuing their philosophical education) and papers must not be published or accepted for publication.
- Papers should be around 15 pages in length, and suitable for a 30 minute presentation.
- A paper can only be submitted to one of the SSP events for this academic year. SSP events for 2007 include: the Annual Conference, APA-Pacific panels, and APA-Central panels. Authors can only submit one paper per event. Any paper that has been previously presented at a past SSP event is excluded from consideration.
- Unreadable or virus infected files will not be considered.

Please send your paper as an email attachment
(PC Word file) to the following email:
